The screenshot displays the website for Sungkyunkwan University's International program. At the top, there is a navigation bar with a menu icon, the university logo (SUNG KYUN KWAN UNIVERSITY (SKKU)), and search and share icons. Below this is a banner image with the word "International" in large white text and a breadcrumb trail: "Home > International > Study at SKKU > Inbound Exchange/Visiting Program".

Inbound Exchange/Visiting Program

A horizontal navigation bar contains four tabs: "Introduction", "Course Information", "Application", and "Bulletin Board". The "Course Information" tab is highlighted with a red border, and a red arrow points to it from below.

Sungkyunkwan University is one of Asia's premier study destinations. SKKU's Humanities and Social Sciences Campus is in the old city center of South Korea's capital, Seoul. It is a unique representation of the force combined Korea's ancient history with the futuristic modernity, which makes Korea a pioneer in the field of business and technology. Beyond this, SKKU's large Natural Science Campus in Suwon, a Korean techno valley, directly south of Seoul, has many advanced facilities as well as a relaxing atmosphere.

- International Objectives

SKKU offers more than 7,000 courses throughout the academic year in every field and level of study. Currently, over 30% of courses are conducted in foreign languages, primarily English. The reason for this is twofold: first to provide a change for SKKU students to improve their global competence and language capabilities, and secondly to provide a larger selection of classes for international students who are not fluent in Korean. SKKU is actively recruiting renowned foreign professors, while providing a series of retraining programs for Korean faculty aimed at enhancing language and lecture skills.
- Academic Year

SKKU's academic year starts around March 1st and lasts for 12 months. The start date of a specific academic year may vary slightly according to each year. All academic schedules, including course signup, add and drop, withdrawal, exams, and course evaluation are planned based on this.
